Eph. 5

As to the Holy Spirit's workings, they are inseparable and sequential, but not reversible.

“Filled with all the Fulness of God” (Eph. 1:23; 3:19; Col. 2:10)
In Christ = Position | Holiness | Separated (Too Numerous)
Indwelling Holy Spirit = Righteousness | Purity | Morality (1 Cor. 3:16; Eph. 2:21, 22)

The Baptizing Act of the Holy Spirit Places the Believing into Christ, His Body (Gal. 3:27)
 The Holy Spirit’s Indwelling is the Filling with the Fullness of God
 This Happens at Regeneration
 This Indwelling | Filling of God Causes, Produces, Results in . . .

Ephesians 5	Galatians 5	Rom. 8	The Saving Acts of God are not Progressive but Point in Time and Happen at Regeneration
Speaking	Walking	Putting to Death the Deeds of the Flesh
Singing	Led
Thanking	Living
Submitting	Fruit
Etc.	Etc.

Who I am	What I do automatically	How it’s done Or accomplished
Unbeliever – in Adam	Walk	According to the Flesh
A Believer – in Christ	Walk	According to the Spirit

GAL 5:16-26

Though specific conditions are not mentioned in this context, the normal requirements for Christian growth would be implied conditions for attaining this kind of [Spirit filled] character.

Ryrie, Basic Theology, (Wheaton: Victor Books, 1987), 376

GAL 5:16-26

- No example of praying for the filling of the Spirit exists in the post-Pentecostal material of the New Testament. So praying, however earnest, is apparently not the way to be filled.

Ryrie, Basic Theology, (Wheaton: Victor Books, 1987), 378

GAL 5:16-26

- Ryrie concludes by saying it is by yielding to Him that produces filling.

Eph. 5:15-21

- I. The exhortation - Since the days are evil, be careful as to how you live (vv. 15-18)
- II. The description - Here is what the Holy Spirit looks like in and through His people (vv. 18-21)

Eph. 5:15-18

 Do not be drunk alla be Spirit-filled (v. 18)

Eph. 5:18-21
