

Come to Me

Matthew 11:28-30

The Theology of Rest

Theme: Only in Jesus can we find the rest we crave.

Outline:

- I. First, to whom is the appeal made?
- II. Second, what is asked of the weary and heavy-laden?
- III. Third, where is this rest found for the weary and heavy-laden?
- IV. Fourth, is the yoke of Christ different than Christ?
- V. Fifth, what is promised to the weary and heavy-laden?

Shepherding the Sheep: (What is the NEXT STEP?)

1. Perhaps you have tried to carry the weight of self-salvation and have found yourself coming up short.
2. Jesus offers you a better way, where He has done all the heavy lifting.
3. To those who are weary and heavy-laden Jesus says, "It is finished."
4. If you have come, please consider whether or not you have placed on yourself or others a burden you and they were never designed to bear.
5. If you are weary and heavy-laden, then His invitation to come is still valid. Have you? Will you?

Waukesha Bible Church is a family of families seeking to live in the Storyline of the Bible. She is determined by design to have a God-centered, Christ-exalting worship; a Word-centered teaching focused on personal discipleship through intentional and systematic instruction; a Global-impacting mission that resolves to be a church planting church; and a Grace-based fellowship where disciples are invited to live under a reigning grace characterized by a Gospel-driven sanctification that celebrates a divine monergism to the Christian life.
